SPIRAL BALANCES

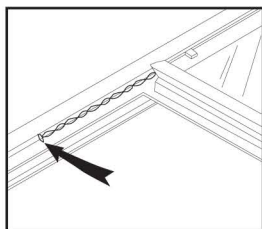

Instructions For Ordering Spiral Balances

Information needed when ordering Spiral Balances

- A. Diameter of metal tube
- B. Tube length of balance - measure metal to metal
- C. Color of nylon bearing
- D. Specify if for a tilt window

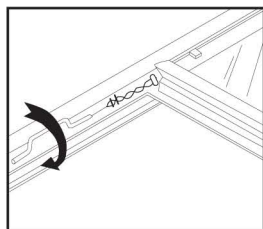

Instructions For Applying Tension To Non-Tilt Window Balances

Step 1

For a single or double hung window, the bottom sash has to be in the raised position.

Step 2

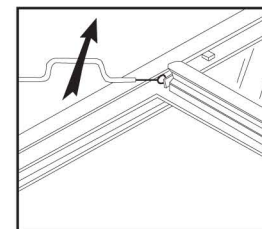

Hook the winding tool through the hole in the end of balance and slowly pull spiral downward 4 or 5 inches.

Step 3

Procedure for winding balance is the same for a hung and tilt window. Turning the balance winder to the right applies tension to the balance. Number of turns varies because of sash weights. Balances on both sides of the window should have the same number of turns. Winding the balance to the left decreases the tension.

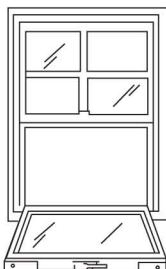

Step 4

After applying or decreasing tension, slowly move spiral upward and position pin back into balance clip.

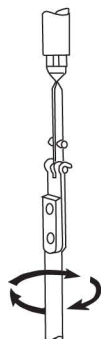

Instructions For Applying Tension To Tilt Window Balances

Step 1

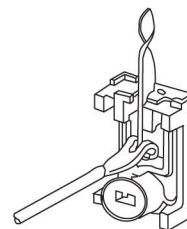

Tilt the sash inward.

Step 2

Hook the winding tool in the bottom pin of the spiral, pull down and twist gently out of the slot in pivot shoe. See Step 3, shown above for winding instructions.

Step 3

After applying or decreasing tension, slowly move spiral upward and position pin back into pivot shoe.

SPIRAL BALANCES

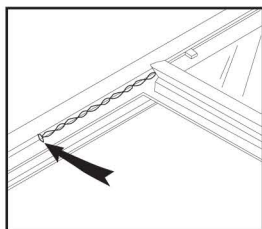

Instructions For Ordering Spiral Balances

Information needed when ordering Spiral Balances

- A. Diameter of metal tube
- B. Tube length of balance - measure metal to metal
- C. Color of nylon bearing
- D. Specify if for a tilt window

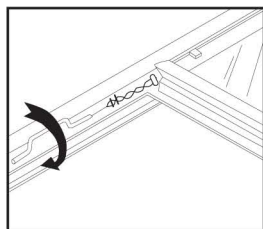

Instructions For Applying Tension To Non-Tilt Window Balances

Step 1

For a single or double hung window, the bottom sash has to be in the raised position.

Step 2

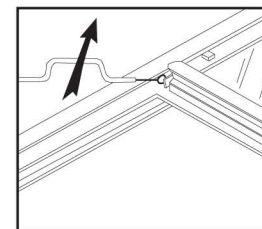

Hook the winding tool through the hole in the end of balance and slowly pull spiral downward 4 or 5 inches.

Step 3

Procedure for winding balance is the same for a hung and tilt window. Turning the balance winder to the right applies tension to the balance. Number of turns varies because of sash weights. Balances on both sides of the window should have the same number of turns. Winding the balance to the left decreases the tension.

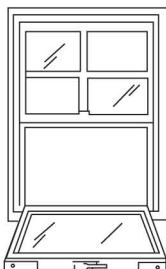

Step 4

After applying or decreasing tension, slowly move spiral upward and position pin back into balance clip.

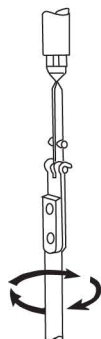

Instructions For Applying Tension To Tilt Window Balances

Step 1

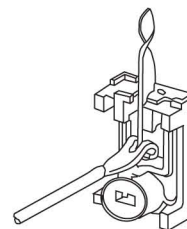

Tilt the sash inward.

Step 2

Hook the winding tool in the bottom pin of the spiral, pull down and twist gently out of the slot in pivot shoe. See Step 3, shown above for winding instructions.

Step 3

After applying or decreasing tension, slowly move spiral upward and position pin back into pivot shoe.
